The Max Starks NFL Youth Football Camp desires to help the Orlando area youth and their families enjoy the football experience every time they step on the football field, cut on the TV or visit a football stadium as a player or as a spectator.

Max Starks, a former Jones High and Lake Highland Prep football player is from the Orlando community. A 2004 graduate of the University of Florida, Max was drafted in 2004 by the Pittsburgh Steelers. He is the starting Right Tackle for the 2006 Super Bowl Champions. Max desires to give back to his Orlando community by establishing an Annual Youth Camp for the youth and all aspiring youth football players. Max was raised in Washington Shores and the College Park communities of Orlando. He wishes to give every youth, regardless of socio-economic background, the opportunity to be a part of this great community effort. Max knows the importance of a positive attitude and proper instruction and technique to help create a stellar athlete. Football is a team sport and teamwork can empower a winning attitude on and off the field. This Youth camp will Empower, Build Self-Esteem, Educate, Teach Sportsmanship, Inspire and Teach the Fundamentals of Life and Football for youth from 7 to 16 years of age. Together we can impact the lives of today's youth through programs like this.

Max Starks NFL Youth Football Camp

The Campus of Historic
Jones High School
Orlando, Florida
Saturday June 16, 2007
8:00am - 3:00pm

The Max Starks NFL Youth Football Camp of Orlando has a primary goal to help today's youth develop a sterling image, both on and off the field. Youngsters are the future of the NCAA and the NFL. There may be Academic All-Americans and NFL Pro Bowlers developing in the Orlando community and now is an excellent time to tap into their development and teach technique, life skills & character development.

We hope to set a positive example for participants by allowing them to get up close and personal with Coaches and NFL Players, who can serve as positive Mentors and Role Models for student athletes. At the conclusion of the camp, there will be a special awards ceremony for the participating youth who have excelled as Max Starks Camp V.I.P's. Don't miss the excitement and fun of The Max Starks NFL Free Youth Football Camp.
